OUR VISION

To be the largest and most innovative media tech company in Latin America

Providing connectivity solutions and news and information services, the best sports and entertainment, both produced and licensed, Vrio Corp. occupies an expanding retail and wholesale distribution space through its DIRECTV, SKY brands and its DGO/SKY+live TV and streaming platforms in the region.

OUR MISSION

Delivering people the best digital entertainment experience, when and where they want it, by providing high quality content, technology and user experiences.

Inspired by our think globally and act locally philosophy, we are driven to expand our reach and bring better content and experiences to more communities.

Superior Content

We offer a wide range of local and international proprietary and licensed content. Vrio brings the best entertainment experience to millions of homes, including sports broadcasts, live music shows, information, movies, series and documentaries, in the best image and sound quality.

Amplified Access

We provide access throughout the region through our 100% digital technology, advanced infrastructure and extensive distribution network.

Comprehensive Understanding

We have a comprehensive knowledge of the region, which allows us to work in several economic environments.

Inspiring Experience

We provide customized services through local content and optimized processes, obtained through insights from our clients.

From rural to urban, we are always working to ensure that people throughout Latin America can have the most amazing entertainment and connectivity available at a price that is right for them.

Sport is one of our strategic pillars and the main programming differential that positions us as leaders in sports broadcasting.

We broadcast worldwide events of the main activities: soccer, rugby, tennis, car racing, basketball, cycling, golf, e-sports and all the disciplines our clients are passionate about.

They are DIRECTV's exclusive sports networks, with 24/7 programming, offering live coverage of a wide variety of national and international events.

It is the FM sports radio station per excellence in Argentina, with soccer as the main protagonist in its programming. DSPORTS Radio was born from the initiative implemented on the basis of a trademark agreement with a local radio station. With the best journalists of the scene and international soccer figures, the radio transmits analysis, interviews and broadcasts of the most important matches of the different tournaments.
